If the city has to raise this money, her bonds would not command over 75 cents in the dollar. To raise $80,000, she would have to sell $107,000 of bonds, the interest on which is $6 420-added to cost of Aqueduct per annum would make $13,773, yearly to be borne by this city during 17 years, and $6,420 forerer after. (Signed) DANIEL LATHORP & CO. HICKORY GROVE, ST. CHARLES Co., Mo., Nov. 19, 1856,-Prof. O. J. Wood-Dear Sir.: Some time last summer we were induced to use some of your HAIR RESTORATIVE, and its effects were so wonderful, we feel it our duty to you and the afflicted, to report it.

Our little son's nead for some time had been scald head. The hair almost entirely came off ings advised us to use your RESTORATIVE; we did so with little hope of success, but, to our surprise, and that of all our friends, a very tew applications removed the disease entirely, and a new and laxuriant crop of hair soon started out, and we can now say that our boy has as healthy a scalp, and as luxuriant a crop of hair as any other child. We can, therefore, and do hereby recommend your RESTORATIVE, as a perfect remedy for all diseases of the scalp and hair. We are, yours, respectfully.
